

Fast trains for Brisbane. One hour to the CBD from up to 300kms away. Revolutionise the way we commute.

By introducing fast trains to travel, not between cities, but to the city from approximately 300kms away, people can travel efficiently and be at work in the CBD in around an hour. Families will be able to afford a real home, enjoy the lives they want and at the same time we'll ease congestion in our overflowing cities.
