

Stop Labor and the Liberals selling our ports and airports to the Chinese Communist Government.

Once they're gone, they're gone

Labor and Liberal have sold our ports, airports and important infrastructure to companies run by the Chinese Communist Government. Is our sovereignty for sale? No Australian company could control a port or build a private airport in China. It simply wouldn't happen. The United Australia Party will establish a Senate Committee to delve into the role played by Chinese Government-owned companies in our economy and politics.
